Exploring Literature Through Art – A Summer Camp for High Ability Students

In this camp, advanced students who are entering second and third grade will have the opportunity to discuss and interpret various types of challenging literature. Using a variety of media, they will then create original artwork that reflects key components of the poem, book, or article. Katie Yeager, the camp instructor, is a state certified art teacher and licensed gifted and talented specialist.

Session One:  June 13 - June 16 (M-Th)

9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.  -OR-  12:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Session Two:  June 20 - June 23 (M-Th)

9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.  -OR-  12:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Session Three:  June 27 - June 30 (M-Th)

9:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.  -OR-  12:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Each session will cover different content, so your child can attend as many weeks as you like.

Cost: $60 per session (minimum of 4 students needed for each class). Includes all supplies.

To register, please contact Katie Yeager at katherine_yeager@dpsk12.org and specify the session and time you prefer.