

Let's Talk About Inclusion!

with Dr. Richard Villa

Hosted by High Tech Elementary School & PTA and the Inclusive Practices Cohort of Compact Blue/Denver Public Schools

Please join us at an evening for parents to learn more about inclusion and how it supports the education of all students

Tuesday, April 19, 6:30-8pm

"Meet & Greet" with Dr. Villa 6:30-7pm -- Presentation from 7-8pm

High Tech Elementary School (Northfield Stapleton)

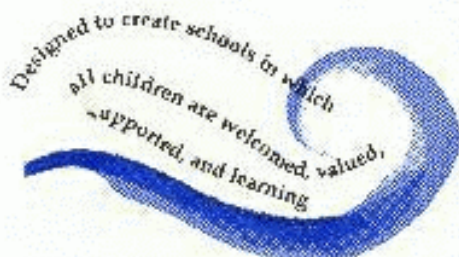

8499 East Stoll Place, Denver 80238

(Families from neighboring schools please note: Child care is not provided for this event)

Dr. Richard A. Villa
Bayridge Consortium, Inc.

Dr. Richard A. Villa has worked with thousands of teachers and administrators throughout North America and the world, to develop and implement organizational and instructional support systems for educating all students within general education settings. Rich has been a middle and high school classroom teacher, special educator, special education coordinator, pupil personnel services director, and director of instructional services. Rich works with schools, governmental and non-governmental agencies, and advocacy organizations. He has authored over a hundred articles and book chapters regarding inclusive education, differentiated instruction, collaborative planning and teaching, and school restructuring. Dr. Villa has co-edited twelve books and developed three multimedia kits for teachers, administrators, and parents. Rich possesses the conceptual, technical, and interpersonal skills required to work effectively with others and facilitate change and progress in education. He has presented at numerous national and international conferences, and is known for his enthusiastic, knowledgeable, and humorous style of presenting.

ravillabayridge@cs.com